Dear Alice and Maurice Murphy

Hope you are doing well. The letter you send <sup>under the</sup> care of tolerance of in missed in transit. I felt sorry that I missed the chance of seeing your letter after five long years.

I received three letters from you sent under the College address. That was in 69, 70 and 71 and I replied to all of them. Now I have received four since that. Thank you very much for the last letter.

My permanent address is Daisy Sebastian, Valiyathupil, Kalaroor P.O. 688 522. Father Dennis writes to me every fortnight.

Your good child Philip has finished the first year degree course. He is writing the exam. He tried to come to the united states for priestly studies, but did not get the visa. Now father is trying again. He likes to become a priest and prays hard to achieve the aim. Father Dennis is appointed pastor of St John the Baptist Church and he is going to conduct the installation ceremony shortly. You may be acquainted with Anne and the Sundaram family.

How is your children you had written in your last letter about Tom Elaine and the baby. What is Philip doing now. Hope she has taken degree in arts and science and is employed.

Prakash has taken his BSc degree. Bittu has formed his engineering course and is trying for a job. Violet has finished BA degree course and her exam ends by next week. We are thinking of giving her in marriage.

How is your <sup>dear</sup> husband Are you still busy with your work in the book house. We always remember you with gratitude for <sup>and affection</sup> sending us the valuable book of knowledge. Once more thanking <sup>you for</sup> your valuable presents I conclude.

with lots of love to all of you
Daisy Sebastian
