Dear Alice & Maurice —

As you can see from the above I am in the big city for my annual vacation and using much of the time to catch up on my letter writing. I was glad to hear that all were well but sorry Tom decided not to go on. However he has lost nothing by giving it a try. It is the surest way to know without a doubt and he will never have to wonder later on if he passed up a vocation.
Philip has plenty of time to consider it now.
I was surprised to learn that Maurice has been with the P.C. long enough to retire — but then it wasn't easy to realize that my 25th had come around. I hope Maurice can find something he really likes and is interested in. It will keep him from going to "seed". As soon as I get back, the end of this week, I must start to work on an addition to the church — need a lot more space. That should keep me stepping.
I have a nice young assistant and he takes a lot off my back. The Omaha address is St. Columbans, Nebraska — it is our own P.C. Many thanks for all your kindness and please God, I'll see you in '72
Now /
Fr. Bill
