Dear Alice and Maurine,

I can't wait until Easter to thank you for that wonderful gift, "The Monitor"

The notification came a few days ago and this morning, March 21st the Monitor paper arrived.

I am very happy to have news of San Francisco and the surrounding places which are familiar to me, because of you all who are living now and of the departed ones. It will seem like getting a weekly letter from home. It will keep me right up to date with all events concerning the Church, too.

I think that you would want to know that my name has been misspelled in the notification and also on the paper.
Since the sisters have so many similar names there is a possibility that it might not reach me. The Monitor has it recorded as "Elise."

The spelling of my name is "Elise". Since the Monitor office is right in San Francisco, I thought you could make the correction over the phone.

I hope that you and all my dear ones are well and that all will have a Joyous Easter. I'll write again about that time.

I saw our first robins yesterday, four of them lit on the ground a few feet from me. I think they wanted me to know of their arrival for I had been expecting them for the past week.

I attended one of the Jubilee Receptions yesterday and every thing was beautiful.

God bless all

Sister Elise
