Thursday

Dear Alice and Maurice:

Just a hurried line
to thank you for your notes, card, and Leader.
I was happy to hear that you were pleased with my present. On Sat. evening Feb. 4 I was very homesick. Needless to say, I was with you in spirit.

Was delighted that the wedding was such a splendid affair. The dropping of the ring must have doubled certain individuals (as Tom Kelley) in laughter.

Am anxious to see the pictures. They will be a constant reminder of your happy day.

A word of apology to Alice on what may have seemed to have been a breach of etiquette. I intended to bring your present back home with me to mail it myself. When they told me at Macy's that they would do the mailing, I decided that their wrapping would look much better than mine.

I did not recall Alice's address for memory:
but I did know Maurice's. So I had the send the present to Maurice is home.

Maurice, as soon as you know definitely about the new postmaster, let me know. I shall be only too willing to communicate with anyone who may be influential enough to get you on the regular list.

With all best wishes to both your families. Don't forget to write. Asking frequent prayer -
Sincerely your Dad
Father Peter
