Good morning darling
I had the stand duty at the squad room & stayed there until 10 am when the inspecting officer came through.
Upon arriving at the P.O. I found a letter from my darling.
He has no stationery, to remain that way until I go to duty at S. F.
Sweetheart no news as yet, but dear my relying on prayer to our dear Lord & his mother but in the meantime the suspense is killing & after this is over I hope I can have a good laugh about this worry.
Dear when I get to S. F. I'll have a tale to relate.
Sweetheart I miss you & I hope to God I get the transfer.
So darling I'll send you all my love & pray that you come home to me real soon.
All my love, sweetheart darling
Maurice

V-Mail Service provides the most expeditious dispatch and reduces the weight of mail to and from personnel of our Armed Forces outside the continental United States. When addressed to points where micro-film equipment is operated, a miniature photographic negative of the message will be made and sent by the most expeditious transportation available for reproduction and delivery. The original message will be destroyed after the reproduction has been delivered. Messages addressed to or from points where micro-film equipment is not operated will be transmitted in their original form by the most expeditious means available.

INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) PRINT the name and address in the two panels provided. Addresses to members of the Armed Forces should include rank or rating of the addressee, unit to which attached, and APO or Naval address.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Enclosures must not be placed in this envelope and a separate V-Mail letter must be sent if you desire to write more than one sheet.
- (5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if air mail is desired).
