Hello Sweetheart:

I started this card last evening but it was only a start. We retired at 11:00 P.M. During most of the night I had the shades in my lower berth up & watched the different parts we passed.

I really missed you but must get used to the new life for a short while (I hope)

3/26/43 Well all my family had said last night that they were going to be up at 5:30 to get used to Marine Corp life. Well I got up at 6:00 & all my kids were fast asleep; so I got them up & we had breakfast at 6:30 A.M. Now now 7:30 A.M. & in a half hour will be in Concordia, Ill. all my love to the best wife in the world.
Love Maurice
