

4 Saturday,
for a while December 12, 1942

Dear Maurice and Alice:

I received those papers, Alice's "V" letter and your card today. Thanks a lot. Sure, I'd like those magazines.

Reading material is at a premium here. Thanks again.

I'm sorry to hear that you haven't, as yet, found a "spot". Did they change the ruling concerning "Military Leave"? I hope you make out o.k., and I'm still praying for your success.

Vi has been letting me in on all the news from home. She writes to me every day. Gee, it's sure swell to hear from her, when the letters come. I miss her terribly and I hope and pray that this "mess" will end very shortly, so I can be with her again. Thanks for being so good to her.

I appreciate it and will never forget this and the many other kindnesses shown to her and to me. Thanks again.

There isn't much else in the way of news, except to say that I am in good health, and that we have a chaplain visit the camp every Sunday (when it's possible) night.

I ran into Art J.'s friend, Lt. Comdr. C— and we had a nice long talk. He sounded very encouraging. Is art in the J.P.O. or the A.P.O.?

Tell him, when you see him that his friend sends his best, and really thinks he's a swell
"guy".

Have those "V" letter Christmas cards come through yet? I'm sorry, I couldn't send anything better, but I know you understand.

Give my best to Johnny and Helen and all the rest, and tell them I'll write real soon.

There isn't an awful lot else to talk about, so I'll say "so long"

4 - Saturday

for a while. December 12, 1942

Love

Dear Maurice

I rec'd Vin those papers.

P.S. Tell Peg that I think that's swell news and I'm jealous. I wish it were Vi, and I ~~were~~ ^(BAD ENGLISH) there. But maybe soon.

Love

I've heard that you haven't, Vin yet, found a "spot". But they change the ruling concerning "Military Service". I hope you will be out o.k., and I'm still praying for your success.

Vi has been telling me in on all the news from
home. She writes to me every day. See, it's sure swell to