Dear Alice, a few moments ago my Superior came into my room with your telegram with the account of dear Katharine's entrance into life Eternal. Amid my tears I thank God from my heart for taking her to Himself.

I have been expecting this message for I have surmised for a long time that she was in a critical condition. In God's mercy He did not let her linger too long.

From all accounts she was well prepared to meet her Creator and now for all eternity she will enjoy His blessings along with all the other members of the family, for life is not taken away, but only changed.

Alice, you and Helen have been truly devoted to her and all have helped her most kindly at all times. She deeply appreciated everything and now will obtain help for you all.

Earlier today I had mailed an Air-mail letter to Katharine and sent it to your address, this letter will almost overtake it.

In a few days I shall write a letter to Harry after I know all the details of Katharine's death. Just now I hardly know what I am writing, for I am in a kind of a daze.

Alice, please tell Katharine's Landlord and Landlady that I heartily thank them for all their kindness to our Katharine.

God's blessing and love to you all.

Sister Elise
